New Year's Ski Trip to Colorado

December 26, 2011 – January 2, 2012
or on mutually agreeable dates ~ very flexible

Take your party of six on a ski trip to remember in the Vail Valley of Colorado.

Beaver Creek has three distinct on-mountain villages and two amenity-laden towns at its base. On any given afternoon, you can ice skate in Beaver Creek Village, ski west to Bachelor Gulch, or take a break on the patio of The Ritz-Carlton. The heart of the resort, Beaver Creek Village, is full of quaint shops, art galleries, bars and restaurants.

Your party of six will stay in the beautiful five bedroom, five bathroom ski in ski out home of Becky & John Allen, located at the top of Arrowhead Mountain. Arrowhead is the western-most gateway to Beaver Creek on the Village-to-Village ski experience.

Included in this trip:

- Use of 2 vehicles
- Six Unlimited Season Passes
- $3,000 Travel Allowance
- Lunch at the Spectacular Mountaintop Yurt Restaurant

Donor: Becky & John Allen

Value: Priceless
